Offg Secretary to the Government

General and Revenue Department

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Municipal Board at Shikarpur in a meeting held on the 20th October 1903 resolved that Octroi duty on the marginally rated articles imported into the Municipality should be levied.

It is reported that a sum of Rspees 200/- will probably be collected if the proposed introduction of Octroi duty on the said articles were sanctioned.

For the present, the Municipal Mutasaddi and the ficon

peon attached to him under the supervision of some of the members in turn will manage the extra work.

I therefore solicit that Sanction of Government may be accorded to levy Octroi at the rate of one pie for every fresh Cocoanut as per Government Proceedings No 6305-14 dated 17th October 1901, ^{a F 33-01} one pie per bundle of 100 betel leaves, eight annas per maund of tobacco and two annas per box of Kerosine oil that are imported into the Municipality from the 1st of July 1904.

The vernacular proceedings ending with the memo dated 14th February 1904 from the 2nd Assistant Commissioner in Charge of Sitikarpur Taluk are herewith submitted for information and kind return when no longer required.

I have the honor to be

Per
